

Wisconsin State ID Card (ID)

Accepted Voter Identification

Who is included?

Wisconsin Residents

Complete the MV3004 application:

Wisconsin State ID Card (ID).

When applying for an original (first) Wisconsin State ID Card documents must be presented that prove: your name, date of birth, legal presence, identity and Wisconsin residency. A list of acceptable documents of proof is on the backside of this page. *

Valid out-of-state driver licenses must be surrendered when obtaining a Wisconsin State ID Card.

* A document verification process is available at the WI DMV if you apply for a free ID card for the first time for voting purposes and your documents to prove U.S. citizenship, name and date of birth, and/or legal name change are unavailable.

Voter Photo ID Law

The Wisconsin State ID Card is a photo ID that can be used to vote. The Wisconsin State ID Card should be unexpired, or if expired have expired after the date of the most recent general election; currently, November 4, 2014

What does it look like?

You can renew your WI State Identity Card online.

<http://www.dot.wisconsin.gov/drivers/drivers/duplicate-id.htm>

Expired WI State ID Cards

The WI DOT may punch a hole over the expiration date to void a WI State ID Card. Hole-punched cards are invalid; therefore, not an acceptable ID for voting purposes.

Who can I contact?

Acceptable Documents of Proof

If you have legally changed your name, you will need to change your name with the Social Security Administration Office before coming to a Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) Service Center. When you come to a DMV Service Center to change your name on your Driver License or Identification Card, you will be required to show proof of your name change.

- + These show proof of your name change:
- Marriage Certificate (original, certified copy if original is not available)
 - Certified Record of Divorce
 - Certified Court Order

Satisfying Multiple Categories

One acceptable document can be used as proof in multiple categories. Proof in each category does not necessarily mean four different acceptable documents.

Original Documents of Proof

The acceptable documents used must be original. Photocopies are not acceptable. The DMV will decline to accept any acceptable document presented if it has reason to doubt the authenticity of the document.

Once documentation is accepted the State ID Card is processed and mailed. A WI State ID Card Receipt is issued that day. The WI State ID Card Receipt is an acceptable ID for voting purposes.

Request is processed within 2-3 business days, and the ID should be received within 10 business days via USPS.
